

CHURCH OF THE SERVANT Prisoners in Christ

www.prisonersinchrist.org

In coordination with Healing Communities of West Michigan
www.healingcommunitieswm.com

PRESENTS

Kirstin Eidenbach, of the ATLaS Justice Center, discussing "Institutional Detox to Impactful Dreaming." There will be time for questions and answers.

When: Friday, February 15, 2019, 10:00 am—noon

Where: Church of the Servant, 3835 Burton St. SE, Grand Rapids

Please RSVP to carolrienstra@gmail.com or admin@healingcommunitieswm.com by February 13 (or for more information).

Kirstin will present how ATLaS works with prison survivors.

Detox: Show them how to develop an awareness of the effects of institutionalization (how prison has affected their way of thinking and behaviors) and learn how to erase those effects within themselves.

Impactful Dreaming: Once they have identified the direction in which they want their lives to go, they learn how to map out the steps to reach their destination.

Presenter: Kirstin Eidenbach, Director of ATLaS Justice from Arizona

www.atlasjustice.center

Join us the next day, Saturday, February 16th as we travel to Lansing for:

CITIZENS FOR PRISON REFORM

10:45 am to 11:00 am—Meet and greet

11:00 am to 1:00 pm—"The Hidden Costs of Mass Incarceration for Inmates and Staff"

Kristin Eidenbach, of The ATLaS Justice Center, will present her groundbreaking look at the impact of long-term incarceration on inmates and how that affects the success of reentry upon release. She will give insight on ways to improve outcomes to the benefit of all of us.

Light refreshments provided.

CPR meetings are secular, free and open to the public.

Please call Carol Rienstra at 616-724-6772 to arrange carpooling to Lansing.